APRIL 7-11

Principals' Message

Hello Joseph Welsh Families!

Next Monday, we will be hosting an Open House at Joseph Welsh for all families new to our school community, as well as those who are currently attending. We will begin with a welcome assembly in the gym @ 5:30 pm, followed by school tours and classroom visits. We will open up all of our classrooms so that families can see the different grades in our school and ask questions of our staff.

During our Open House on April 14, we will have used books for sale in the library. We know that books can be expensive, and we really want our students to have books at home to enjoy. This used book sale is by donation. We have lots of books looking for new homes, come have a look!
